The writ petition was filed against the deduction of crop insurance premium from the loans of the members of the writ petitioner association in Khariff and rabi seasons 2004-2005 at the rate of 1% to 8.95%.

Pending the writ petition, an interim direction was granted in W.P.M.P. No.20886 of 2004 on 09-9-2004 not to make such deductions. The interim relief granted was, in effect and substance, the final relief and nothing further remains to be adjudicated in the writ petition in relation to the crop loans of 2004-2005, while the questions in issue in the writ petition about the liability of loanees to submit themselves to such deductions of crop insurance premium from their crop loans, can be left open to be determined in appropriate legal proceedings, to which the parties may take recourse to, if so advised, and if it is so necessitated in respect of any such loans in future and concerning the subject matter of the writ, the infructuousness of the matter needs to be recorded.

Hence, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
